

BPP Students' Association Crisis Fund

The BPP Student Association Crisis Fund is a limited source of financial support for students who, due to circumstances beyond their control, are in severe financial difficulties. The fund has very limited resources and any award will be modest and with the sole aim of providing short-term emergency support. The fund is not being offered to provide ongoing or regular support to any student.

Additionally, it is not designed to assist those who have not prepared themselves financially to begin their course. Therefore, applicants who seek funding to cover their course fees are ineligible.

The maximum fund that will be given to students will be a cash award of a maximum of £250 at the discretion of the advisors.

The Association will expect that applicants have taken all reasonable steps to ensure financial stability and have applied to secure funds through other means for example – via overdraft, family or loans (such as student / professional loans).

Who is not eligible to apply?

- Those who are not currently registered students of BPP University.
- Those who are seeking to cover long term costs (examples include credit card bills, and outstanding debt).
- Those who have other finances available to them through savings accounts or other means.

A student may only be granted two successful awards within one calendar year from the date of their first award
